NEW ORLEANS

Office of
Black Catholic Ministries

Scholarship Program

The Bishop Dominic Carmon Scholarship was established in 2016 to honor Bishop Carmon who was the second black auxiliary of the Archdiocese of New Orleans. This scholarship is dedicated to support one parishioner of the archdiocese who is seeking a Master of Theology degree through the Institute for Black Catholic Studies. Qualified candidates will be a practicing Black Catholic in the Archdiocese of New Orleans in good standing in their parish and active in parochial ministry; have a bachelor's degree and be accepted into the program at Xavier; be recommended by their pastor and have a written agreement of how they will work to enhance both their parish and the archdiocese; and submit a report to the Office of Black Catholic Ministries outlining their learning experience after the summer session.

The Sr. Thea Bowman Faith Formation Scholarship is dedicated to support two parishioners of the Archdiocese of New Orleans who wish to attend the Institute for Black Catholic Studies for Certificate and Enrichment program. Qualified candidates are currently working or have committed to work in faith formation in their parish; will have a written agreement to work for at least one year in support of the programs of their parish and the OBCM; and will submit a report outlining their learning experience after the summer session.

The Sr. Eva Regina Martin Pastoral Leadership Scholarship is dedicated to support two parishioners of the Archdiocese of New Orleans who wish to attend the Institute for Black Catholic Studies for the Certificate and Enrichment program. Qualified candidates are currently working or have committed to work in leadership in their parish; will have a written agreement to work for at least one year in support of the programs of their parish and the OBCM; and will submit a report outlining their learning experience after the summer session.
